

LONG BEACH FROM THE AIR. A striking bird's-eye view of this popular New York seashore resort taken a Sunday or so ago from a speeding airplane and showing the Hotel Nassau, Castles-by-the-Sea, the boardwalk, a number of the summer homes and the crowd of bathers enjoying a cool dip in the Atlantic.
©Fairchild Aerial Camera Corp.

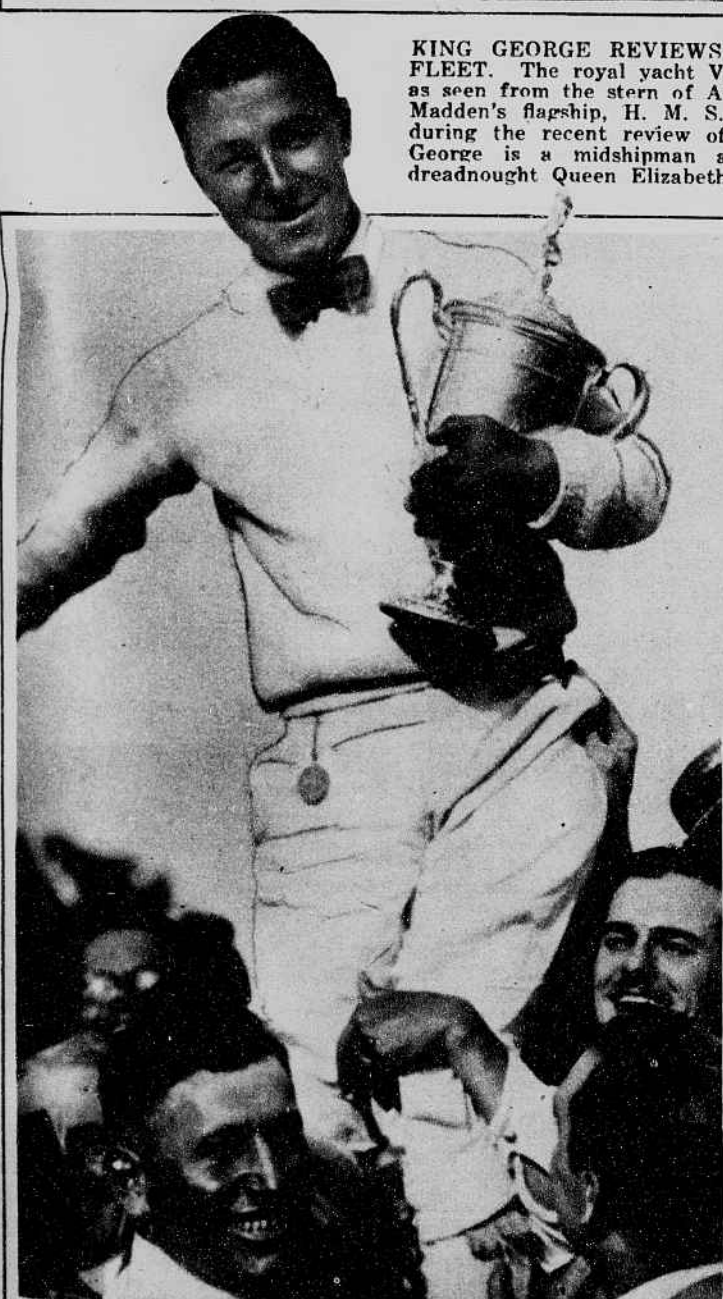

Left — CHARLES EVANS HUGHES turns his back on Long Beach as he gets off a smacking drive from the first tee at the Chevy Chase Country Club, Washington, where our Secretary of State finds relief these days from the Capital's mid-summer heat and affairs of state. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace is one of Secretary Hughes's favorite golf opponents. Wide World

KING GEORGE REVIEWS HIS ATLANTIC FLEET. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert as seen from the stern of Admiral Sir Charles Madden's flagship, H. M. S. Queen Elizabeth, during the recent review off Torbay. Prince George is a midshipman aboard the super-dreadnought Queen Elizabeth. Keystone

WINNING WITH THE ISTALENA. Carol B. Alker, of New York, at the wheel of his New York Yacht Club fifty-footer, pilots the trim craft home a winner on the opening day (last Saturday) of the Larchmont Yacht Club's annual race week, the biggest regatta of the year. Pictured with the Yale grad of 1909 are four guests and two members of the Istalena's sun-burned crew. Levick

AMERICA'S NEW OPEN GOLF CHAMP. Little Gene Sarazen, former New York caddy at Anawamis reaches the throne of golf at the age of twenty-one. The black-haired, swarthy, homebred, American son of Italian parents, came through at Skokie last week with four sterling rounds of 72, 73, 75 and 68 for a total of 288, which won for him the American open golf championship cup. Tied for second, one stroke behind, were John L. Black, the veteran California "pro," and Bobby Jones, the youthful Atlanta amateur. Levick

MRS. CORDELIA BIDDLE DUKE, well known New York society matron, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, of Philadelphia, snapped on the fashionable sands of Southampton, L. I., with her two youngsters, Angier B. Jr. and Tony. International

THE NEW MRS. GEORGE GOULD. now honeymooning abroad. Mrs. Vera Sinclair, of New York, who became the bride of George J. Gould at Lakewood, N. J., last May. News of the marriage was kept secret until recently. Our snapshot, taken last August, shows Mrs. Gould a blonde; other photos published pictured her a brunette. ©Kodak & Herbert